

- The title refers to twin items within words.
- A very simple math function is to be applied to a value of a twin and the value of the item centered between the twins.
- This math function provides for positive and negative values and relies on the following rule. $a = 1 \dots z = 26$